Dear Bill:

I read where Control Data has been named "Employer of the Year" by the Mental Health Association of Minnesota for its excellent employee programs.

You and your company are to be congratulated because of your efforts. However, it does not surprise me because I know of your strong belief in the well-being of your employees and your community. Control Data is a superb example of an enlightened, humane business.

Again, my congratulations.

With warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,
