Dear Bill:

Thank you for looking into the possibility of providing work for the Progress Products Company in Philadelphia, which is a community based business to help create jobs for the Philadelphia area. I do hope your people will continue to explore ways to work with this little company in the future.

I look forward to seeing you at subsequent meetings of the President's Task Force on Private Sector Initiatives in Washington.

Continuing best wishes to you in all your good endeavors. You are an example of social responsibility at its best.

Sincerely,

Leon H. Sullivan
