RECEIVED
MAR 26
W. C. NORRIS

Dear Mr. Norris:

I want to express my sincere appreciation for your testimony and patience at the Senate Judiciary Committee's first hearing on the Small and Independent Business Protection Act.

It is encouraging to know that there are business leaders in the United States who recognize that there is a problem of large mergers and increasing economic concentration. I hope we can work together in the months ahead in shaping a responsible legislative solution to the problem that confronts us in this area.

Sincerely,

Edward M. Kennedy
